

Charlie Newton

Charlie served as the President and Chief Executive Officer of Penquis and its subsidiary corporations for 28 years, retiring in 2014. Penquis is a multi-purpose corporation providing social services, community and economic development programs to 16,000 Maine families with services in 14 of Maine's 16 counties. At the time of Charlie's retirement, Penquis had over 100 grants and contracts from numerous private corporations, private foundations, private donors and 14 different federal and state departments.