

David Green

David's passion is bringing out the best in people and organizations. He is comfortable working with executives, middle managers or front line workers, technical or professional people. David has an ability to bring together people with diverse backgrounds and viewpoints and focus on achieving common goals. David has coached, trained or counseled dozens of small businesses and talked to hundreds.

Prior to starting a business in 2005, David spent over 30 years in a variety of roles including; engineering, IT, operations management, project management and organization development. David has worked in the UK, Canada and the USA, managed operations with 300 people, led teams covering North and South America, and has worked on several successful global projects.

David has a degree in Production Engineering from Napier University in Edinburgh, Scotland, has a Certificate in Organizational Development from the NTL Institute, is a Certified Executive Leadership Coach, a Certified Life Coach and is a Registered Maine Guide.

David is active in the local community: Past President of the Rotary Club of Bangor, Assistant District Governor for Rotary District 7790 (Maine & Quebec) and is a Board Member of the Charlotte White Center.